Does every lady really realise how serious the shortage is of all kinds of Household Linens and that prices are still going up and up? Even now certain goods are unobtainable. It would, indeed, be a pity to find (in) hecause one nostfind (just because one post-poned buying) that an article could not be got or that it was treble the ordinary price.
This has happened with blankets and might easily happen with Table Cloths, Sheets, Towels, &c.

So in her own interest a lady should Buy Now especially while this Sale is on.
